- 12. Los Angeles Urban League - Pomona - A Community and Senior Services' Workforce Investment Act Program Contract Service Provider - Contract Compliance Review - Fiscal Year 2012-13 (9/26/13) (Continued from meetings 10/16/13, 11/20/13, 12/18/13 and 1/15/14). (13-4654)

This item was discussed with item 13.

Jackie Lynn Sakane, Community and Senior Services (CSS), reported that the agency has disallowed costs and owes the County approximately $32,000. A meeting was held with Executives of the agency on January 8, 2014 where non-compliance issues and additional questioned costs of approximately $400,000 were discussed. Ms. Sakane reported that the agency was asked to submit a letter describing initiatives that will bring them into compliance. The agency is currently only allowed to do business with their active clients. Ms. Sakane shared that there is concern about training for clients since the agency has not been paying their training vendors since June 2013. Ms. Sakane described the agency's cash flow issues as being severe.

Ms. Sakane was asked to report back and submit a timeline with measures that can be taken by CSS and also include the amount of active clients currently with the agency.

Elaine Boyd, Auditor-Controller, stated that the exit report drafted by her office recommends placing the agency in the Contractor Alert Reporting Database (CARD).

Ms. Sakane reported that the agency has also failed to pay property taxes.

On motion of Louisa Ollague, seconded by Lori Glasgow, this item was continued to next meeting.
